

My darling Cadence,
I hope this letter finds you well.
It has been eight unbearable minutes since

I searched in every nook and cranny,

I had lost you.
high and low

We were close, but in the blink of an eye, you vanished

Please come back

I cannot go on like this.

My beloved Cadence, you gave me a cup filled to the brim,

my craving was satisfied

Now it ceases to exist

My heart still yearns for you, even though you are no longer here.

My dearest Cadence,

I will forever continue looking for you in each aisle.

My lost buddy,

I hope we reconnect soon

Forever my shopping buddy

love,

Charlie
